Outreach/Engagement Independent Study Proposal Form

The following independent study guidelines apply:
- Only juniors and seniors may undertake an independent study project.
- Independent study projects may not take the place of regularly scheduled courses.
- A 3.0 cumulative grade point average is required.
- Students may earn a maximum of 3 credits toward graduation requirements.
- Students need to secure a faculty member's agreement to sponsor the project as indicated by a signature on this form.
- The approved Outreach/Engagement Independent Study Proposal form must be returned to the Academic Services Office for a registration override. Students register for ARTDES 312.

The following criteria are used for determining whether an independent study project qualifies for Outreach/Engagement. Students must:
- complete a project/collaboration in a venue outside the School of Art & Design,
- work with or on behalf of a client, and
- initiate or play a majority role in the project/collaboration.

The client may an individual, a group, a club, an organization, another University unit, a service or religious organization, a non-profit, a for-profit, a social group, a business, a foreign country, culture, or educational institution.
