If you could reach out to one person who moves you by what they do, who would it be? What would you say?

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 7
5–7 PM
Sankofa Lounge
U-M Trotter Multicultural Center
428 S. State Street

“Activist Love Letters” is a participatory performance and workshop with artist Syrus Marcus Ware that invites participants to think about their role in sustaining a movement and supporting their communities.

Syrus Marcus Ware is a Vanier Scholar, visual artist, community activist, researcher, youth-advocate and educator. For 12 years, he was the Coordinator of the Art Gallery of Ontario Youth Program. Syrus is currently a facilitator/designer for the Cultural Leaders Lab (Toronto Arts Council & The Banff Centre) and is the inaugural artist-in-residence for Daniels Spectrum (2016/2017). He is a core-team member of Black Lives Matter Toronto.

This event is presented in partnership with the U-M Trotter Multicultural Center and the Spectrum Center LGBTQ Health & Wellness Week. Activist Love Letters will be held in the Sankofa Lounge. Refreshments will be served.
