This winter, Stamps Gallery will be hosting a community book read of Queer & Trans Artist of Color, Volumes 1, 2, and 3 by Nia King. Join us for three book events to discuss the themes of the books and celebrate queer and trans black and brown genius.

Featuring special guests: Noura Ballout, micha cardénas, Darryl DeAngelo Terrell, and author Nia King.

JANUARY 18
2-4 pm
Stamps Gallery
(201 S. Division St.)
Following a tour of the Stamps Gallery exhibition Taking a Stand by curator Srimoyee Mitra, Detroit-based artist, curator, and founder of the studio and residency space Habibi House, Noura Ballout will lead a group discussion on the book: Queer & Trans Artist of Color: Stories of Some of Our Lives (Volume 1).

FEBRUARY 8
2-4 pm
Stamps Gallery
(201 S. Division St.)
Following back-to-back talks by artists micha cardénas and Darryl DeAngelo Terrell, Terrell will lead a group discussion on the book Queer & Trans Artist of Color, Volume 2.
This program is part of the Spectrum Center LGBTQ Health & Wellness Week.

MARCH 14
2-4 pm
Ann Arbor District Library
(Downtown Location)
343 S 5th Avenue
Join us for a talk by artist, activist and author, Nia King. King will speak about her book series, Queer & Trans Artists of Color and other projects. Copies of the books will be for sale. A book signing will follow the event. Recommended reading: Queer & Trans Artists of Color, Volumes 1, 2, and 3.

Organized by Stamps Gallery in partnership with the U-M Spectrum Center with support from the Ann Arbor District Library. Sponsored by the U-M Office of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion.
